

PRAYER REVIEW

JUNE 2011

PRAISES:

Southern Nazarene and Mt. Vernon University Nazarene Teams in Swaziland – We are hearing great reports from the GO Teams currently in Swaziland that their days are full of ministry and partnership and they are all doing well. They are due home on Tuesday evening, June 7. Brent LaVigne says that the two teams are working well together and enjoying these days of service in Swaziland.

Evan and Andrea Mosshart – We have been praying for quite some time about who our next on-site coordinators would be for Swaziland. Evan and Andrea Mosshart have accepted this volunteer position and will leave for Swaziland on Saturday, July 30, 2011. Please be prayerful for the Mossharts as they raise their support and prepare for this year of service. Welcome, Evan and Andrea!

Two major goals for BFC as we partner in Swaziland – We have been praying since 2009 about two major areas of ministry and partnership in Swaziland –

- What can BFC do to help Swaziland in their fight against AIDS?
- What part can we provide to help orphan and vulnerable children?

Regarding AIDS – we were encouraged to partner with the Swazi church to equip and train pastors and their spouses on how to speak to their congregations about AIDS. The first Swazi Pastoral Couples Conference is scheduled for August 16-19, 2011 in Manzini, Swaziland. Dr. David Busic has been invited to be their keynote speaker.

Regarding at-risk children – A new partnership has just begun between BFC, Nazarene Compassionate Ministries and Ntongozi Church of the Nazarene in Swaziland for the first Child Development Centre. Please check out our website for how you can personally help and to pray for these children.

These are important days in Swaziland as we move toward this first Child Development Centre partnership and this Pastoral Couples Conference. Please be praying for God’s direction, blessing, and anointing.
