PRAYER REVIEW

MAY 2010

PRAISES:

Andy and Amy Curry – The Curry's have accepted the invitation to serve as the next on-site coordinators in Swaziland for Bethany First Church of the Nazarene. They will depart on Tuesday, May 18 for Swaziland and will have a month to train with Brent and Michaela before the LaVignes return to the States in mid-June. Andy will be returning to a place where he spent part of his childhood with his parents, Mike and Debbie Curry, who gave leadership at the Teacher Training College for four years. Please pray for Andy and Amy as they make all final preparations to depart and for their year of volunteer service in Swaziland.

New Website – Element Fusion has given a new website to Bethany First Church of the Nazarene (BFC) to share the work and ministry of the Swaziland Partnership and the part that BFC provides in this partnership. This new website will launch at the end of May. We thank the Lord and Element Fusion for this wonderful gift!

On-site Coordinators – Bethany First Church of the Nazarene continues to be blessed with outstanding on-site coordinators in Swaziland. We thank the Lord for Rev. Will and Karis Stemen, our first on-site leaders and for Brent and Michaela LaVigne who are currently serving in Swaziland. These couples have built trust and strong relationships in Swaziland. They have served as volunteers. Please pray for Brent and Michaela as they make the transition to leave Swaziland and to come back to the States next month.

Three teams in one month – Even as Brent and Michaela are concluding their year of service they will coordinate three teams in one month! Southern Nazarene University and Eastern Nazarene University are sending student teams to Swaziland in mid-May. As these teams depart, the LaVignes will welcome a team from Lenexa Central Church of the Nazarene that will include students from MidAmerica Nazarene University. Please pray for the LaVignes and these three teams for their time of ministry and service in Swaziland.
