MARCH 2011

PRAISES:

March 2011 GO Team – We are so thankful for our team delegates. Open hearts and minds can be greatly used by the Lord for His purposes. Our team will be in Swaziland from March 10-21, 2011. Each person brings talents to be used in ways we will never fully know.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

GO Team Delegates – Please pray for each person as they prepare to minister and serve in Swaziland.

- Julie Arnold, RN – Julie is a pediatric nurse from Ohio and will be serving on the medical team.
- Andy and Amy Curry – On-site coordinators for BFC in Swaziland
- Bill Dillard – Bill will be working on a new commercial farm in Siteki that will benefit students from the College of Theology.
- Jerry Eastwood – Jerry is a retired businessman from OKC, and will be involved on the construction team by helping finish a roof at our new Jubilee project at Tambankhulu Church of the Nazarene.
- Adam Farris – Adam is an international business student from OU and will be serving on the compassion and construction teams.
- Dr. Bradley Farris – Brad is a neuro ophthalmologist from Dean McGee Eye Institute (DMEI) will assess how he and DMEI can get involved in addressing ophthalmologic needs in Swaziland.
- Diane Farris – Diane is a school teacher and will be involved on the compassion team working with children at Gigi's Place and through Vacation Bible School.
- Dr. Terry Hall – Terry will be in high-level meetings with the Ministry of Health about the usage of the pediatric Standard Treatment book in every government hospital and clinic across Swaziland.
- Barbi Moore – Barbi will serve as the team leader
- Chad Wilds – Chad is an OKC paramedic and firefighter and will split his time between the medical and construction teams.
- Gwendolyn Young – Gwen is a retired executive from the State of California and will be serving on the compassion team.
- Andy and Amy Curry – As our on-site Coordinators, Andy and Amy will be completing their year of service by hosting several teams, receiving container shipments, facilitating meetings and events and preparing the way for the next on-site Coordinators.

Barbi Moore – Barbi arrived in Swaziland March 1 to prepare for the GO Team arrival on March 11. She will be conducting meetings with various church, educational and Swazi Ministry of Health officials. Please pray for guidance and God's wisdom as Barbi makes final preparations for the team arrival.

Swaziland Leaders and those whose lives we touch as our team partners with them during this trip.

Safe travel and good health as the team departs on March 10, returning home on March 21.

God's blessing and guidance – Pray for the areas of service to be covered by this team.

Team Prayer Calendar – We have provided a Team Prayer Calendar with specific individuals and Swazi leaders designated for each day. You can find these calendars in the literature racks at the west and north entrances of BFC.
